Job Description :: Writer/Content Editor

This person will help our publishing team write and edit the content our ministry is creating for women's ministry, youth ministry, small group Bible studies and leadership development. This includes—but is not limited to—writing and editing Bible study curriculum, leader's guides, training posts, host copy for video resources, online product descriptions, email campaigns, articles, and press releases.

To work best with our highly-collaborative team, this person is required to work from our office in McKinney, Texas. We will not consider candidates who wish to work from home. This is a full time (42 hours/week) position.

Requirements for this job:

- A strong, fast writer with the ability to produce both quick blurbs and feature article length content (minimum 2–3 years experience).
- In-depth knowledge of Scripture (Bible college or seminary experience preferred, but not mandatory).
- A love for the Church and small groups, current involvement in a small group Bible study.
- Ability to write biblical content that matches audience needs and provides missional inspiration.
- Well-organized and excellent attention to detail.
- Self-starter with the ability to multi-task and meet deadlines.
- Proficient with Microsoft Word.
